

Same Day Shipments - Next Day Delivery

Most U.S. orders received within Advantage Supply business hours for in-stock items are shipped no charge the same day the order is received, with most items delivered the next day. No matter how soon you need it, we'll work with you to find the best way to get your order delivered as quickly as possible. All orders are subject to availability. Freight & handling charges may be applied to shipments that are special ordered and are over the UPS size & weight standards or where courier, common carrier and other services may be required.
